COMMON

HEDGE MUSTARD.

NAMES.

A. تدري
G. Ερυσιμον.
L. Eryſimum.
I. Irione.
G. Hederich.
F. Tortelle.
S. Rinchaon.
D. Sophie - Krupt.

PLACE.

By the ſide of Roads & Hedges.

DESCRIPTION.

The Root is long, whitiſh, and often Crooked, wit
The Stalk is round, woody, branching out like a ſmal a Brownish Bark full of Short white hairs. The Root, are Cut into ſeveral pair of Jagg'd Segments, Number as they grow higher, becoming like the Head of a good green with purpliſh Stalks. The Empal Green topt with purple. Four Yellow Leaves compo grows at the Ends of the Stalks. the Seed Veſſell is ed at the top to receive the Farina which is Yellow th with Summits. See 4. 5. 6. 7. 8 which are Magnifi

VIRTUES.

It is Hot and Dry.

T. Sheldrake delin.